MARRIAGE.
On the 7th Oct., at Highfield, near Southampton, by the Rev. F. E. Wigram, assisted by the Rev. R. C. Callender, Joseph Charles Fendered, late Commander in the Imperial Japanese Lighthouse Service, to Emily, youngest daughter of the late Rev. T. L. Shapcott, Vicar of St. Michael's, Southampton.

The publication of this issue commenced at 8.05 p.m.

THE CHINA MAIL.

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, NOV. 18, 1879.

OUR advice from Manila appear to point to the inauguration of a more healthy action than hitherto, on the part of foreign Consuls, against the unjustifiable and obstructive policy adopted towards trade generally in the Philippines.

It has often been a subject of wonder to us, and to others who watch events, whether it ever enters the mind of a Customs official at Manila that the extension and fostering of trade is the duty of a civilized Government.

The reverse would seem to be the result, if not the purpose, of the harassing and vexatious interferences with legitimate commerce which are everlastingly cropping up, as witness the experience of the last few months. A case has but recently occurred there which, however, inspires the hope that H. E. the Captain General is beginning to realize the harm likely to be done by pursuing the present unfriendly and unreciprocal system to extreme lengths.

The American ship Rembrandt is or was on the berth for New York, and a vessel having arrived from the provinces with about a thousand bales of hemp, the smaller vessel was placed alongside in order to tranship the said cargo into the Rembrandt, in the ordinary course of business. After this work was finished, the over-zealous and worldly-wise Customs Superintendent, whose qualities have become widely known and esteemed at their proper value through the Gunga and Masonic affairs, pronounced the transhipment to be illegal, and seized the thousand bales of hemp aforesaid. We are not fully acquainted with the technical objections raised by this worthy official to the apparently harmless and straightforward conduct of the agents of the Rembrandt. Unfortunately there is a puerile sameness about such difficulties raised in the Philippines which, as we have hinted, argues a lack of knowledge of political economy as well as a scantiness of international courtesy. However, this incident was so glaring that it roused the energy of the American, English and Danish Consuls, and resulted in a joint representation being made by those officials to the Captain General. His Excellency, after having satisfied himself that his subordinate had exceeded his duty, at once ordered the release of the impounded cargo, and ventilated his opinions pretty freely (so it is said) concerning those Customs gentlemen who are evidently fated to make his relations somewhat warm with the Government at Madrid. It is satisfactory to find that the higher authorities at Manila are showing signs of listening to reason; and if we mistake not, this gratifying change is in no small measure due to the determination of Captain Pauli, H. E. M. Consul, to see that the rights of his own and other nationalities are respected in that out-of-the-way part of His Majesty's dominions. Consul Pauli deserves the heartiest support and commendation of all lovers of progress and fair play.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The next AMERICAN MAIL may be expected here on or about the 22nd inst., by the O. & O. steamer Belgia, which left San Francisco on the 25th ult.

The Takago Maru left Kobe this morning at 4 a.m.

THE S. S. Merionethshire left Singapore for Hongkong on the 17th inst., and the S. S. Radnorshire left Hlogo for Hongkong on the 13th idem.

THE one case which will be heard on Monday next at the Criminal Sessions, as stated in His Lordship's remarks, is that in which the accused is T. I. Bowler. In this case Mr Hayllar, Q. C. will defend the prisoner, and a special jury will be empanelled.

It will be seen from advertisement that the Choral Society's Concert has been further postponed. From the plethora of public entertainments promising to visit us, we seem to have ample pleasure-making for some time to come; and the "Choral" we have always with us.

We would again call attention to the entertainments to be given by Mr Val Vose and Mr Ira Brown at the Garrison Theatre to-morrow evening and Friday. H. E. Major-General E. M. Donovan commanding, Lient. Col. Hall, R.A., and Lient. Col. Geddes, 27th Inniskillings have given their patronage to the entertainments.

H. M. gunboat Lily left the Hwangpoo, Shanghai, on the morning of the 10th inst. on a visit to the Yangtze ports.

Mr Franklin, of the defunct English Opera Troupe, has joined Mr John Jack's Dramatic Company for a short season at Shanghai.

MANILA advices point to good times for the Philippines, in the matter of crops. Never were the prospects so favourable as at present—sugar, tobacco, coffee, rice and hemp looking better than they have done for years past. The natural result of this is, that all classes of the people, and even officials—excepting perhaps some of the Customs folks—are beginning to show a radiance of smiling faces.

The steamer Leyte, as we have already announced, is a total wreck, and her cargo is lost. She was fully insured in London. We may add that it was the Cebu, not the Butuan, with which the Leyte was formerly in collision.

THE Braemar Castle, with a cargo of teas from Shanghai and Amoy to New York, arrived in Singapore about the 14th instant, when it was discovered that part of her cargo was on fire. The contents of the after hold and 'tween decks will have to be discharged, and the vessel will probably be detained about three weeks. We understand that almost the whole of the cargo is insured in American offices.

CHRISTIANITY appears to be taking firm root in Japan. In Osaka alone, there are said to be no less than 8,600 persons professing its doctrines, in one form or another. Of these, 1,500 are Protestant, 1,800 Roman Catholic, and 800 belong to the Russo-Greek church.—Hioyo News.

THE Hochi Shinbun publishes a singular and very improbable story. It says that Lient. Col. Kajiyama was sent to China on government business, but was informed by the Chinese authorities that he would only be permitted to land at Hongkong or Shanghai, and as this did not suit him he returned to Japan without accomplishing his mission.

THE Hioyo News, writing on the recent defeat of Schultz at Shanghai, says:—
"Mr. Glass has done well in defeating so good a man as Mr. Schultz, but we would venture to remind him that he has still another formidable opponent to tackle—and defeat—before he can claim the title of champion sculler of the Far East; which distinction, we make bold to say, now rests with a Kobe man, whose name we refrain from mentioning, knowing his modest disposition. This gentleman, as far back as ten years ago, succeeded in holding his own against all comers in Hongkong, and has since beaten the best men that Shanghai, Yokohama, Nagasaki, and Kobe have put forward. It now remains for Mr. Glass, if he is desirous of attaining the proud distinction of Champion Sculler of the East, to come forward and compete with our local crack, who, we will take upon ourselves to say, will be delighted to try conclusions with him in the spring. If he will only give Kobe a visit. A match between two such men as these would make much more interest in the two settlements than even an inter-port four-oar race, and we really hope that Mr. Glass may be persuaded to come over to Kobe next year."

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.
(Before C. F. Creagh, Esq.)
Monday, Nov. 17.

DRUNK AND INCAPABLE.
Andrew Drew, 30, seaman of the American ship Southern Cross, was charged with being drunk and incapable in the public streets on the 16th instant, and was fined half a dollar in default two days' imprisonment.

AN IMPUDENT ROBBERY.
Wong Ahong, 19, cook, was charged with stealing a five dollar note from a girl

12 years of age, in Wellington Street, yesterday.

To Ahoi, a servant living with her master in Shelley Street, stated that she had been sent to get change for a five dollar note. The note was wrapped up in a handkerchief which she carried in her hand. She met the prisoner in Wellington Street and as he passed he snatched the handkerchief from her hand, and ran down Cochrane Street. Witness followed calling out "robbery, robbery," and the defendant was caught in Queen's Road by a constable.

P. O. No. 192, Fong Ahcheung said he was in plain clothes yesterday in the Queen's Road when he heard the cry of "robbery." He arrested the prisoner and accused him of the theft. When charged prisoner said—"never mind; let me off."

Defendant stated that he saw a man throw down the handkerchief; he picked it up and was then arrested.

His Worship sent him to goal for three months, the first and last fourteen days in solitary confinement, the rest with hard labor.

STEALING WOOD.
Tam Ahcheung, 28, carpenter, was charged with stealing timber from a builder in Wellington Street. In defence prisoner said he had formerly been in the employment of the prosecutor and thought there was no harm in taking a piece of wood for firewood.

Prisoner was sentenced to be imprisoned for twenty one days with hard labor.

(Before Hon. C. B. Plunket.)
Lam Ayan, 39, carpenter, was charged with entering the house of one Li Atung for an unlawful purpose and also with assault.

Li Atung stated that he was employed in a fowl shop in the Eastern Market and rented No. 94 First Street. There were other families in the same house. Yesterday evening about 9 o'clock, he came home and on opening the door defendant rushed out of the house. Witness seized him when prisoner bit his finger making a lacerated wound. Complainant visited his wife every night but did not sleep at her house regularly.

Defendant stated he was a carpenter employed at Vanchai. Yesterday evening he, with several of his fellow workmen, called on some friends to seek employment. As it was late and he had neither pass nor light he went to his cousin's house to sleep there for the night. Complainant came into the house and assaulted him and put his finger in defendant's mouth and he, defendant, bit him.

Wong Akam said she was the wife of complainant and had been married to him eleven years. He did not support her properly. The defendant came to her house to repair a door. When complainant came home he arrested the prisoner and accused him of being there for an unlawful purpose. Witness was afraid her husband would beat her so she took refuge in a neighbour's house.

Complainant, on being asked if his wife's statement was true, said she was telling lies and that he would not take her to live with him again for the world.

His Worship fined the defendant $5, in default to be imprisoned
